I Could Win

I Could Win by Joltz

I could fight the battle

I could win the war

I could defend my people

I could save my friends

I could go against what the chee believe

I could disgrace the pemalites

I could become a killing machine

I could forget everything I was ever taught

I could become a weapon of mass destruction

I could become a monster

But ignoring all that could happen, I could fight

And I could win
